Final Round

- Friday, November 18, 2016 7-9pm in the Touhill PAC, Lee Theater.
  Times will be assigned in mid-November.
- The final round is open to the public.

Requirements

- The musician and his/her applied teacher must select a movement of a concerto with readily available orchestral parts.
- The selected concerto will be approved by the Concerto Competition committee. Reasons a concerto may not be approved for the competition include:
  - Availability of orchestra parts
  - Cost of music rental
- Memorization of the piece is required in the final round.
- The musician is responsible for securing an accompanist for the competition. Live piano accompaniment is required.
- The musician is responsible for supplying the judges with three copies of the score. Copies are acceptable.
- The deadline to enter the competition is Sunday, November 1.
Results

- One winner will be selected by a panel of judges of highly regarded professional musicians and educators, to be named at a later time.
- The results will be announced the evening of the final round, after the judges' deliberation.
- The winner will perform their concerto movement with the UMSL Orchestra or Band on a spring concert in the Touhill Performing Arts Center Lee Theater.
- The judge’s written evaluations will be available to contestants the evening of the competition.
