

UMSL Junior Honors Band

This two day event will provide 11th grade band students the opportunity to experience the University of Missouri-St. Louis campus and the UMSL Music Department through interaction with our faculty and current students. Both days will include full band rehearsal and sectionals with the UMSL Wind and Percussion faculty. We will feature this Honors Ensemble with the UMSL Wind Ensemble on a concert December 7, 2016, in the Lee Theater of the Touhill Performing Arts Center. This concert is open to the public and we encourage parents and family members to attend.

To download the registration form please visit www.music.umsl.edu Participants will submit applications by November 28, 2016. There is no fee. Additional information can be found at the web site above.
