September 2014 through August 2015

Are you a high school senior or undergraduate student planning to study music or currently studying music as your major? A scholarship may be available for you!

If you are an African-American student planning to study towards a degree in music from an accredited college, university, or conservatory, we invite you to apply for the Saint Louis Symphony Scholarship.

Scholarship Criteria:

- Enrolled in a minimum of twelve credit hours as a Music major at an accredited four-year university, music school or conservatory for the 2015-2016 academic year
- Must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale

Additional Benefits:

- Based on availability, receive mentoring and individual coaching by Saint Louis Symphony musicians and staff during the 2015-2016 season
- Based on availability, attend Saint Louis Symphony Powell Hall Concerts and open rehearsals with visiting artists

Application Guidelines

Applications will be accepted from all high school seniors or currently enrolled music majors working towards an undergraduate degree. Preference will be given to applicants who are members of IN UNISON® churches. Applicants should submit the following:

- Scholarship Application
- Most recent cumulative high school or college transcript(s)
- Current Résumé
- One page essay outlining interest in music, academic and career plans

Scholarship

The Saint Louis Symphony will award a total of six individual scholarships of $1,000.00 to apply towards student tuition at an accredited undergraduate program for study in a four-year degree program in music. If the student is planning to attend the University of Missouri-St. Louis, the scholarship will be matched by the University. Students benefit from free visits to Powell Hall for performances by the Saint Louis Symphony and national visiting artists, as well as mentoring sessions and professional development opportunities with SLSO musicians and staff, based on availability.
